Cologne is built for a short break. You step out of the Hauptbahnhof and the cathedral is right in front of you; the Christmas markets, the Altstadt brewhouses, the Rhine and the Chocolate Museum are all within about half an hour's walk. The centre sits on the west bank inside a semicircle of boulevards called the Ringe; across the Hohenzollern Bridge is Deutz, with the classic view back to the cathedral. Creators suggest two to three days, and several said 48 hours felt too short.

At Christmas the city runs several big markets at once, each with its own theme and its own mug: the cathedral market under a giant tree, Heinzels Wintermärchen across two Altstadt squares with an ice rink, the angels' market at Neumarkt, a St Nicholas village at Rudolfplatz and a maritime market by the Chocolate Museum. For families there is a lot to do - a Christmas post office, carousels, Ferris wheels, skating and curling - and most of it is in one walkable loop of about 1.5 km.

For solo travellers Cologne feels friendly and easy, and creators felt safe. The police figures are more mixed: crime is higher than in Munich or Nuremberg, and it is concentrated in the same central squares visitors use, around the cathedral and station, Neumarkt and the Ringe at weekends. The good news is that pickpocketing and street robbery both fell sharply in 2025. This guide shows where to take care, using the latest police report.

WF

Germany doesn't publish street-level crime data, so before you book, check your hotel's street against the map in this guide and any community reports on Wiley Fox - and if it's by the Hauptbahnhof, ask which side of the station it's on.

Fast facts

CURRENCY Euro (EUR) - cards are widely taken, but some market stalls are cash only and others card only, so carry both

LANGUAGE German - most people in the centre speak good English

TIME ZONE Central European Time (UTC+1) - one hour ahead of the UK

PLUG Type C and F, 230V - UK plugs need an adaptor

EMERGENCY 110 police · 112 fire & ambulance · 116 117 out-of-hours doctor

ENTRY UK passport must be under 10 years old on arrival and valid 3+ months after you leave the Schengen area; visa-free for up to 90 days in any 180 (gov.uk, Sept 2026)

TIPPING About 5-10%, or round up - tell the server the total you want to pay

BEST TIME Mid-November to 23 December for the markets (weekdays are far calmer); May, September and October are cheaper and quieter

THE FESTIVE SEASON

Christmas in Cologne

Cologne is one of the best places in Europe for Christmas markets because so many are close together: the cathedral market, Heinzels Wintermärchen, the Markt der Engel, Nikolausdorf and the harbour market are all walkable, each with its own theme and collectable mug. In 2026 most run from 16 November to 23 December. They are very popular - creators found them packed on weekend evenings - and police send plain-clothes officers after pickpockets. Pickpocketing across Cologne fell by 31% in 2025, but the city centre is still where most of it happens.

The famous one: over 140 red-roofed stalls under a canopy of lights, a giant Christmas tree against the cathedral, and more than 100 free stage events. Creators loved the setting and the ham rolls with sauerkraut, Reibekuchen and fresh pretzels, but several found it the most touristy and commercial, with higher prices. A mistletoe photo for charity was €2. Enter from the south side for the best view of tree and cathedral and a quieter way in.

Crowds: The busiest market, beside the station. Packed on a Thursday at 3pm and 'could barely move' on weekend evenings; already busy 30 minutes after opening on a Saturday. Go at 11am on a weekday.

Many creators' favourite, especially for food and families. It is themed on Cologne's legendary gnomes, the Heintzelmännchen, across two squares joined by a market street. The Alter Markt half is crafts, gifts and a Christmas pyramid. The Heumarkt half has an ice rink around the equestrian statue, curling lanes (book ahead - around €28 a group in 2023), a Ferris wheel, a carousel and a two-storey bar over the ice. Children can post a letter at the Christmas post office and get a reply. Try Flammlachs, Handbrot (€8 in 2025) and the raclette baguette.

Crowds: Calm at lunchtime on a weekday; 'Disneyland busy' in the evening and very hard with a pushchair. Toilets are hard to find in the evening crowd. Skate by day.

The angels' market, one of Cologne's oldest, under a canopy of star lights with white chalet-style stalls. 'Angels' walk through and give children gold dust to blow away with a wish, and there is a carousel. Several creators called it the prettiest market. Try the cathedral-shaped waffle with cherries and cream (€7.50-8.50). A Käthe Wohlfahrt stall sells wooden crafts.

Crowds: Calmer mid-afternoon; very busy after 5pm and on Saturdays. Neumarkt is also a police CCTV hotspot, so keep valuables close.

A maritime-themed market in white tents on the waterfront, with a pirate-ship Glühwein bar, a small play area and a covered Ferris wheel over the Rhine (€9 per person in 2025). Families liked the ship and the hot chocolate; others found it smaller, less decorated and further out, and one creator would skip it. Pair it with the Chocolate Museum - but the museum closes at 6pm.

Staying safe in the Christmas crowds

Crowds and timing

The cathedral market and Heinzels are shoulder to shoulder on weekend evenings after 5pm. Tuesday or Wednesday at opening time is calmest, and the first week of the season is quieter. Enter the cathedral market from the south side and use the side nooks to get out of the crush.

Via thelittlebasket, Special Spice Travels, Traveling Expats, Travelling Pandas

Pickpockets: fewer, but still here

Pickpocketing across Cologne fell 31% in 2025, but 41% of cases are in the city centre. In December 2024 plain-clothes officers caught several suspected pickpockets at the cathedral market and on the Alter Markt, going for jacket pockets and backpacks. Police advice: valuables split between closed inner pockets, only the cash you need, bags closed and in front.

Via Worthy Travels

Cash, deposits and coins

Carry euros and a card: some stalls are cash only, others card only. Mug deposits were €3-4 in 2025. Market toilets cost about 50 cents to €1 and some need coins; department stores and cafés are the free fallback. Market cash machines charge high fees and can run out at weekends.

Via thelittlebasket, Worthy Travels, Anay And Anayra | Indian Couple In Europe, Adventures of Matt and Nat

Pushchairs and small children

The cathedral market and Heinzels are hard work with a pushchair in the evening, and the Advent market has wood chips underfoot. Go by day with small children. Nikolausdorf and the harbour market are the easiest for families.

Have a lost-child plan

Before you go in, agree a meeting point everyone can find - the big Christmas tree at the cathedral market, or the equestrian statue in the middle of the Heumarkt rink. A Wiley Fox QR wristband on each child means anyone who finds them can reach you straight away.

Source: Polizeipräsidium Köln / Stadt Köln

After the markets close

The markets shut at 21:00-22:00. The walk back through the Altstadt is well lit and busy. On Friday and Saturday nights the Ringe, Zülpicher Straße and Neumarkt get rowdy, and police treat Breslauer Platz and Ebertplatz as hotspots - use the cathedral-side station exit and take a taxi if you're staying out that way.

Source: Polizeipräsidium Köln / Stadt Köln

New Year's Eve

In 2025/26 bangers were banned inside the Ringe, no fireworks at all were allowed near the cathedral, and the Hohenzollern Bridge and cathedral area closed from 18:30. Police recorded 274 offences in Cologne that night, down from 369. Plans for 2026/27 aren't out yet - check stadt-koeln.de in December.

Source: Polizeipräsidium Köln / Stadt Köln

In 2026 the cathedral market, Markt der Engel and Nikolausdorf run 16 November to 23 December (closed Sunday 22 November); Heinzels opens a week later on 23 November and its Heumarkt half runs to 10 January 2027; the harbour market runs 13 November to 3 January. Nothing much is open on 24-26 December. Book hotels early - creators found December prices about double, and Düsseldorf is a 30-minute train away if Cologne is full. Buy Chocolate Museum tickets online, and book curling at Heinzels well ahead.

WF

Clip a Wiley Fox QR wristband on each child. If you get separated in the market crowd, anyone who scans it can contact you straight away - no app needed on their side.

WHAT THE DATA AND THE CREATORS SAY

How it feels, and what the numbers show

The data

Cologne is a big, busy city with more recorded crime than most German cities its size. Police recorded 11,362 offences per 100,000 residents in 2025 (Cologne and Leverkusen together), down 2.4% on 2024, and in the Eurostat comparison below it sits mid-table among Germany's big cities - well above Munich and Nuremberg, close to Hamburg, Berlin and Düsseldorf. The trend is going the right way: pickpocketing fell by 31% in 2025, street robbery by 21% and robbery overall by 13%. The crime that matters most to visitors is concentrated in the city centre - about 41% of all pickpocketing happens in the central police district that covers the cathedral, the Altstadt, Neumarkt and the Ringe - and police run CCTV at seven hotspots, including the cathedral and station, Breslauer Platz, Ebertplatz and Neumarkt. This rating is for the city as a whole, not street by street: German police do not publish street-level crime data.

The creators

Creators found Cologne relaxed, friendly and easy to walk. A family with a baby and a toddler found it very clean and safe (Where Is Briggs), a senior solo traveller felt safe in the historic and tourist areas (SeniorSoloTravel), and a solo woman ate alone on a Monday night and walked back to her hostel without a second thought (Rachel Wells). NiteshOnTheGo felt noticeably safer than in Paris. Nobody reported being pickpocketed. The recurring complaint is crowds: the cathedral market and Heinzels are shoulder to shoulder on weekend evenings, and Schildergasse was too crowded to move on a December Saturday.

What the official figures say

Figures are from the Cologne police's PKS 2025 annual report, which covers Cologne and Leverkusen together, so the headline rate is for both cities. No street-level data is published; the smallest unit is the police district, and the central district (PI 1: Altstadt-Nord, Altstadt-Süd, Neustadt-Nord, Neustadt-Süd) recorded 32,100 offences in 2025, down 2%. In that district street crime fell 16% and pickpocketing 37%, but violent crime rose 7.5% (1,785 cases) and assaults 5%. Across the police area, sexual offences rose 7% and recorded rapes 21% (417). Rates are per resident, so the millions of commuters, shoppers and tourists in the centre push them up. Police CCTV locations are the ones police themselves describe as crime hotspots with a wide range of offences.

PICKPOCKETING IN 2025 (5,548 CASES)

The biggest fall of any offence type. About 41% of cases were in the city-centre district around the cathedral, Altstadt and Neumarkt (Cologne police, PKS 2025).

11,362

RECORDED OFFENCES PER 100,000 RESIDENTS IN 2025

Cologne and Leverkusen police area, down 2.4% on 2024. Police compare it with Dortmund, Düsseldorf, Duisburg and Essen.

274

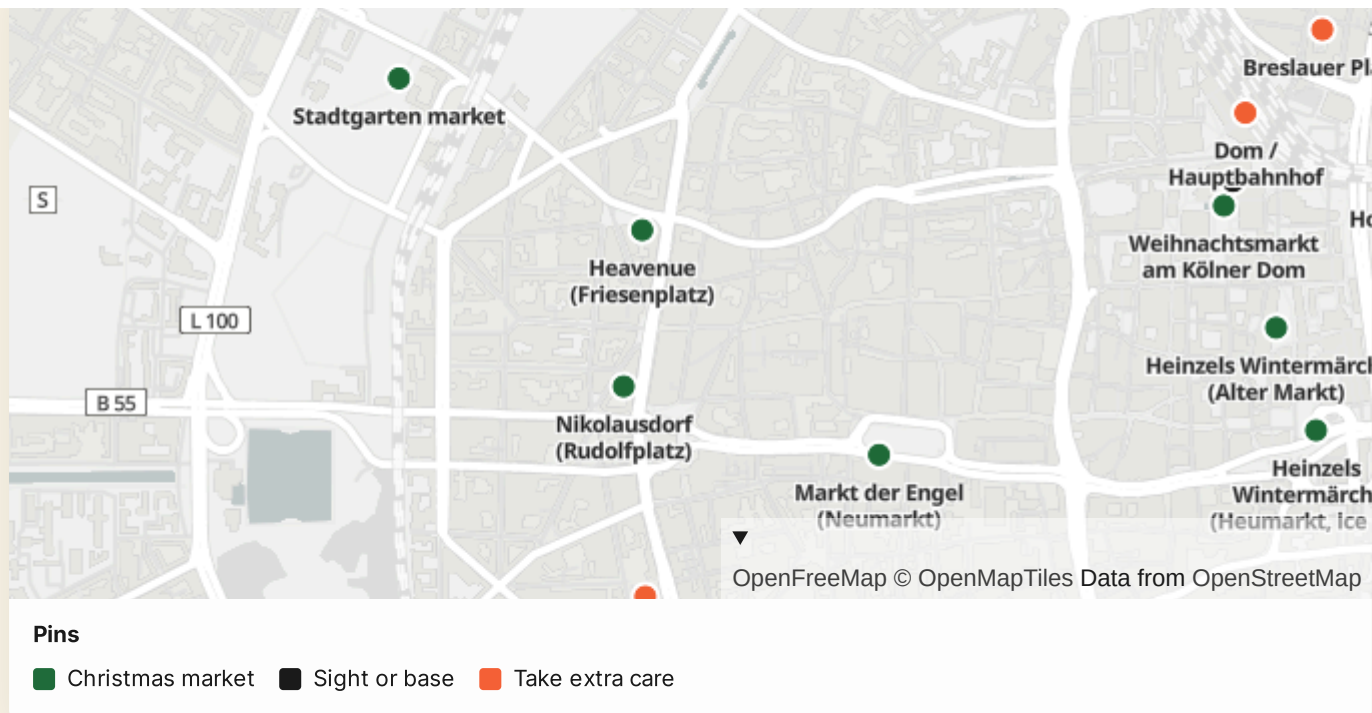

OFFENCES IN COLOGNE ON NEW YEAR'S EVE 2025/26

Down from 369 the year before, with 13 pickpocketing and 4 sexual offences recorded across the police area (Cologne police, 8 January 2026).

Map: markets, sights and places to take care

Germany doesn't publish street-level crime data, so this map shows the markets and sights in this guide and the places Cologne police themselves list as crime hotspots with CCTV.

How Cologne compares with other German cities

Police-recorded offences per 100,000 residents in 2024, using the same Eurostat measure for every city. Cologne ranks 6 of 8 big German cities for robbery (1 = lowest). Big cities all sit above the national average because shoppers, commuters and visitors are counted as victims but not as residents.

	THEFT	ROBBERY	ASSAULT	BURGLARY
Munich	1,272	51	806	276
Nuremberg	1,701	60	889	413
Stuttgart	1,801	107	1,102	358
Hamburg	3,255	127	1,251	469

Areas to take extra care

None of these are no-go areas. Know the pattern, and plan your timing and your route home.

- Cathedral forecourt (Domplatte) & Hauptbahnhof

TAKE MOST CARE: EVENINGS, WEEKENDS AND MARKET SEASON

Police list the cathedral and station area as a crime hotspot with a wide range of offences, and it has police CCTV. It is also where most visitors arrive, so it is packed with people and luggage - ideal conditions for pickpockets. The whole city-centre district recorded 2,276 pickpocketing cases in 2025, 41% of the city total, although that was down 37%. Keep phones in inner pockets, bags zipped in front, and don't leave luggage unattended while you check a map.

Source: Polizeipräsidium Köln / Stadt Köln

- Breslauer Platz (behind the station) & Ebertplatz

TAKE MOST CARE: LATE EVENING AND NIGHT

Both are on the police list of crime hotspots with CCTV. Breslauer Platz is the station's back entrance and long-distance bus stop; Ebertplatz is a sunken square on the northern Ringe about 15 minutes' walk from the cathedral. Neither is somewhere travellers need to linger - use the cathedral-side exit of the station, and take a taxi or the tram rather than cutting through at night.

Source: Polizeipräsidium Köln / Stadt Köln

- The Ringe & Zülpicher Straße

TAKE MOST CARE: FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS, AND 11 NOVEMBER

Cologne's nightlife strip. The Ringe are a police CCTV hotspot, and the Ringe and Zülpicher Straße are weapon ban zones from 20:00 to 06:00 at weekends, before public holidays and on carnival days: knives of any blade length are banned. On 11 November, the start of carnival, tens of thousands party here and the city fences off the Zülpicher area. Fine to walk through early in the evening; late at night, get a taxi back.

Via Max and Sidney

- Neumarkt

TAKE MOST CARE: EVENINGS

A big transport hub and the home of the Markt der Engel. Police include Neumarkt in their CCTV crime hotspots, and creators found the angels' market very crowded after 5pm. Enjoy the market, but keep valuables close, agree a meeting point, and don't wait around the underground station entrances late at night.

● Cathedral market & Heinzels in the evening

TAKE MOST CARE: WEEKEND EVENINGS AFTER 5PM

Creators describe the cathedral market as 'could barely move' at night and Heinzels as 'Disneyland busy' after dark - hard going with a pushchair or small children. The little Advent market next to the cathedral market has wood chips underfoot, which are hard for pushchairs. Go at opening time or on a weekday afternoon.

Via Travelling Pandas, Brickey Vlog, The Karacsonyi Family, Mathers On The Map, thelittlebasket

● Schildergasse & Hohe Straße

TAKE MOST CARE: SATURDAYS IN DECEMBER

The two main shopping streets link the cathedral with Neumarkt. Creators quote 13,000-15,000 shoppers an hour, and one found Schildergasse too crowded to move on a December Saturday. Crowds like this are where pickpockets work - police warn of thieves who bump into you, spill something on you or ask for directions while an accomplice steals.

WHAT CREATORS RATE

Twelve things worth your time

Ranked by how often creators recommend them. Most are within a 15-minute walk of the cathedral; in December, see the sights by daylight and save the markets for the evening.

01 Cologne Cathedral (Kölner Dom)

DOMPLATTE • GREAT FOR KIDS

Germany's most visited landmark and a UNESCO site, right outside the station. Inside: the Shrine of the Three Kings and huge stained-glass windows; creators found it darker and moodier than expected. Since 1 July 2026 sightseeing inside needs a ticket; prayer entry stays free via the north portal. The 533-step south tower has no lift and closes on 11 Nov, 24, 25 and 31 Dec. Only small bags - no wheeled cases, and nowhere to leave them.

KÖLSCH, REIBEKUCHEN AND HALVE HAHN

Where to eat

Cologne eats in brewhouses: long wooden tables, gruff waiters called Köbes, and small glasses of Kölsch that keep coming until you put your beer mat on top. Every place is credited to the creator who recommended it, and prices carry the year.

For a grown-ups' evening, do a brewhouse crawl: Früh, Gaffel, Sion and Peters are all within a few minutes of each other. Put your beer mat on the glass to stop the refills, and clink on the thick base, not the rim. Drunktopus found Papa Joes Bierschänke a quirky Wild-West beer salon; he suggests skipping the standing-room crush at the busiest bars. The Belgian Quarter and Ehrenfeld are where locals drink - bars, galleries and live music - but the Ringe and Zülpicher Straße get rowdy late on weekends. Opening times and menus change, so check before you travel. Wiley Fox is not paid for restaurant listings.

BEFORE YOU GO

Getting around Cologne

From the airport

The S-Bahn (S19) runs from Cologne Bonn Airport to the Hauptbahnhof in about 15 minutes, roughly every 20 minutes, and the station comes out opposite the cathedral. Creators found it easy but one reported delays both ways. Check the current fare in the KVB app: fares rose on 1 June 2026.

Via Rob on Holiday, She Run the World, Urban Pigeon, I Plan Holidays

By train

Brussels to Cologne takes about 1h50 direct, and Düsseldorf is 20-30 minutes away. Eat See TV's train was cancelled and a 3.5-hour journey took about six hours with three changes, so leave slack. Official taxis wait outside the cathedral-side exit.

Via She Run the World, Island Hopper TV, Eat See TV, Urban Pigeon, Chad and Claire

Walking the markets

The cathedral, Heinzels (Alter Markt and Heumarkt), Markt der Engel and Nikolausdorf form a loop of about 1.5 km on pedestrian streets. The harbour market is about 2.5 km from the cathedral along an exposed, windy stretch of the Rhine, and the Stadtgarten is about 2 km - take the tram for those. Cobbles everywhere, so wear comfortable shoes.

Via thelittlebasket, Worthy Travels, Adventures of Matt and Nat

Trams, U-Bahn and tickets

KVB runs the trams and underground. From 1 June 2026 a single in Cologne is €4.00 (children 6-14 €1.80, under 6 free), and a 24-hour ticket is €9.60 for one or €19.20 for up to five people - usually the better deal for a family. Buy in the KVB app or at machines. Older videos quoting €2.90 are out of date.

Via thelittlebasket, Rob on Holiday

Christmas Market Express

A hop-on hop-off road train links the cathedral, the Alter Markt, the Chocolate Museum and Neumarkt, about every 15 minutes. It was €15 for adults and €7 for children under 12 in 2025; 2026 dates and prices aren't out yet. Creator reviews are mixed - one found it unreliable and slow - and walking is often quicker.

Driving

Car parks near the cathedral fill quickly at weekends in the market season. The station is right by the cathedral, so the train is the easy option.

Quick tips

Sights by day, markets by night

In December it's dark by about 4:30pm. Do the cathedral, bridge and museums first and save the markets for when the lights come on - but not too late on a weekend.

Go early in the season, and midweek

Creators who went in the first week, or on a Tuesday or Wednesday at opening time, had far more space. Weekend evenings are shoulder to shoulder.

Wear grippy shoes

Cobbles everywhere and wet December pavements. Comfortable, waterproof shoes matter more than smart ones, and a pushchair with big wheels helps.

Two or three days

One day covers the cathedral and a couple of markets; two or three lets you see them all without rushing and add the Chocolate Museum or a day trip.

Plan for Christmas itself

Most markets close on 23 December, and shops close on 25, 26 and 27 December and 1 January. Heinzels on the Heumarkt and the harbour market stay open into January, but Heinzels rests on 24 and 25 December.

Leave the car - and the penknife

Car parks fill fast on market weekends, and knives are banned in the Ringe and Zülpicher Straße zones on weekend nights. The train drops you right at the cathedral.

Local tips for Cologne

Every tip here was checked against an official or trusted source (KVB, Deutsche Bahn, Kölner Dom, Stadt Köln, Polizei NRW, gov.uk and others) on the date shown. Rules and prices change, so tap the link to double-check before you travel.

Paying for transport

How much is a single bus or tram ticket in Cologne?

From 1 June 2026 a single in Cologne (price level 1b) is 4.00 euros for adults and 1.80 euros for children aged 6 to 14. It is valid 90 minutes. Older creator videos quoting 2.90 euros are out of date. Checked 2026-09 ↗

What is the best day ticket for a family?

The 24hTicket for 5 people is 19.20 euros in Cologne (1b) and the single-person 24hTicket is 9.60 euros. Both run 24 hours from validation, not to midnight. It no longer covers bikes, which now need a separate 4.50 euro ticket. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Do young children need a ticket?

Children under 6 travel free. Children aged 6 to 14 pay the kids fare. Dogs on a lead travel free. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Is the Deutschlandticket worth it for a short trip?

Probably not. It is 63 euros a month and sold as a subscription with a monthly cancellation option, so day tickets are simpler for a short break. Checked 2026-09 ↗

How do I buy tickets, and do I need cash?

You can buy in the KVB app, at machines, in customer centres or at shops. App prices now match machine prices. When we checked, machines sold only Cologne city (1b) and short-trip tickets, so use the app for anything else. The app also offers eezy.nrw, where you check in and out by

How do I get from Cologne Bonn Airport to the city centre?

Take the S-Bahn to the Hauptbahnhof, which is opposite the cathedral. The airport says S-Bahn, regional and bus lines serve it round the clock. Creators in 2026 report about 15 to 16 minutes, every 20 minutes, and one found it late both ways. Creators paid 3.50 euros before the June 2026 fare

Checked 2026-09 ↗

Where can I leave my luggage at the Hauptbahnhof?

There are lockers at Köln Hbf: 6.00 euros for 24 hours or 3.00 euros for 2 hours, taking coins or cards. Each locker is 45 × 65 × 85 cm, so check your case fits. The cathedral will not let you take suitcases inside or store them. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Is the KölnCard worth it?

It lists at 9 euros for 24 hours and 18 euros for 48 hours, or 19 and 38 euros for up to 5 people. It includes public transport in Cologne plus museum and tour discounts. The KVB page had not yet shown the June 2026 fare rise, so compare with the 9.60 euro 24hTicket. Checked 2026-09 ↗

CHRISTMAS Is the Christmas Market Express tram worth it?

The Wolters Bimmelbahn runs a hop-on hop-off loop to four markets. The operator says a new edition starts in November 2026 but has not posted 2026 dates. Its last listing was 15 euros adults and 7 euros children under 12. A 2023 creator found it unreliable, and the markets are walkable, so treat it as optional. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Water & snacks

Is the tap water safe to drink?

Yes. RheinEnergie says you can drink Cologne tap water at any time without worry, and use it for baby food. Fill your bottle at the hotel tap. Checked 2026-09 ↗

What is the bottle deposit thing on drinks?

Most plastic bottles and cans carry a 25 cent Pfand. Return them to the machine in any shop that sells drinks and keep the receipt for the till. Checked 2026-09 ↗

CHRISTMAS Do I pay extra for my Glühwein mug?

Yes. Creators in Nov and Dec 2025 paid about 5 euros for the drink plus a 3 to 4 euro mug deposit (Pfand). Each market has its own mug. Return it at any drink stall of that market for your deposit, or keep it as a souvenir. Amounts are creator-reported, so check the price at the stall.

Checked 2026-09 ↗

Toilets

Are there toilets at Cologne Hauptbahnhof?

Yes, 24 hours, on the ground floor via passages C and E. It costs 1.50 euros, with a 0.50 euro voucher back for use at partner shops, and there is a family cabin. Cafe Galestro and Fan Tea nearby list free toilets, and Toilet Dom is 0.50 euros.

Checked 2026-09 ↗

CHRISTMAS Are toilets free at the Christmas markets?

Not usually. Creators report paying 50 cents to 1 euro, and some booths need coins. Department stores and cafes are the free fallback. Nikolausdorf says it has modern toilets and a baby changing table.

Checked 2026-09 ↗

Parks & play

What is there to do with kids on a wet day?

The Chocolate Museum is open daily 10:00 to 18:00. Under 6s are free and children up to 18 pay 10 euros on weekdays (11.50 at weekends). It is closed 24 and 25 December and on Mondays 2, 9 and 16 November. Cologne Zoo is open every day of the year, but 2026/27 winter hours are not yet published (2025/26: 9:00 to 17:00, and 9:00 to 14:00 on 24 and 31 Dec).

Checked 2026-09 ↗

Where can the kids let off steam outdoors?

Cologne Tourism's family guide (Nov 2023) suggests Rheinpark, with tunnel slides and a mini train, and Lentpark, with ice-skating and penguin skate aids. Museum Ludwig was free for under 18s in that guide. That guide is old, so check opening times before you go. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Is the Odysseum science centre still an option?

Do not plan around it. The planned successor, EXPLORADOM at Mercedes-Allee 1, was not opened in its planned form and vouchers were refunded, according to Explorado. Check before relying on any replacement. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Money & tipping

CHRISTMAS Do the Christmas market stalls take cards?

Bring both. Creators in Dec 2025 found some stalls cash-only and others card-only, with Apple Pay working at some. A city-centre ATM before you go beats the busy market ATMs, which creators say charge high fees. Checked 2026-09 ↗

How much should I tip?

Around 5 to 10 percent in restaurants, or just round up. Tell the server the total when you pay. Taxis are usually rounded up or 10 percent. Tipping is voluntary, even if the card machine suggests amounts.

Checked 2026-09 ↗

Phones & data

Will my UK phone roam for free in Germany?

Not automatically. UK networks are not required to offer free EU roaming, so check your plan or buy a roaming pass before you fly. Ofcom lists local or virtual SIMs as another way to cut costs, and says to check your package or ask your provider. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Things lost on trains or in the Hauptbahnhof go through the DB Fundservice, open 6:00 to 22:00 daily. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Are knives allowed in the city centre?

Not in the weapon ban zones. The Ringe and Zülpicher Straße zones apply 20:00 to 06:00 at weekends, before public holidays and on carnival days. Wiener Platz (Mülheim) applies all day, every day. Knives of any blade length are banned, with fines up to 10,000 euros. Leave pocket knives at the hotel. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Are there weapon rules at the Hauptbahnhof?

Only at set times. The federal police issue temporary bans on carrying dangerous objects at Köln Hbf for big events, such as carnival (12 to 17 Feb 2026) and Kölner Lichter (1 Aug 2026). CHRISTMAS Can I set off fireworks on New Year's Eve?

Not in the city-centre zone. In 2025/26 a ban on bangers and firecrackers covered the area from the Rhine to the Ringe. Any fireworks were banned from being brought near the cathedral, and fines can reach 200 euros. Rules for 2026/27 have not been announced yet, so check stadt-koeln.de in December. Checked 2026-09 ↗

CHRISTMAS What should families expect around New Year's Eve?

In 2025/26 the Hohenzollern Bridge closed to pedestrians from 18:30 and streets around the cathedral closed from 18:30. Expect the same pattern, but 2026/27 plans are not out yet. The cathedral tower and the KölnTriangle viewing deck are both closed on 31 December. Checked 2026-09 ↗

What happens on 11 November (carnival opening)?

11 November 2026 is a Wednesday. Tens of thousands celebrate in the Altstadt and the Zülpicher Viertel. In 2025 the city fenced the Zülpicher area with limited entry, banned glass from 8am to 8am in the Zülpicher area and Altstadt, and diverted tram lines. The 2026 plan is not yet published. With children, avoid those areas that day. The cathedral tower is shut.

What bags can I take into the cathedral?

Only small bags and day rucksacks up to 40 × 35 × 15 cm. No wheeled cases, cabin trolleys or hiking rucksacks, and there is nowhere to leave them. Expect a bag check. Cover shoulders, and eat and drink outside. The tower page lists 10 cm depth, so pack small. Checked 2026-09 ↗

CHRISTMAS How do I avoid the worst market crowds?

Creators say weekend evenings after 5pm are shoulder-to-shoulder and Tuesday or Wednesday right at opening is calmest. For the cathedral market, one family suggests entering from the south side and using the quieter nooks. Pushchairs struggle at peak times. Checked 2026-09 ↗

CHRISTMAS Are shops open on Sundays and holidays?

No. In North Rhine-Westphalia most shops must close on Sundays and public holidays. In 2026 that means Sunday 27 December, Friday 25 and Saturday 26 December, and Friday 1 January. On Thursday 24 December shops may open until 14:00. Shops at the Hauptbahnhof and airport may open for travel needs, until 17:00 on 24 December. Checked 2026-09 ↗

How does Kölsch ordering work?

Kölsch comes in small 0.2 litre glasses, and the waiter (Köbes) keeps bringing fresh ones. Put your beer mat on top of the glass to say you have had enough. Ask for Kölsch, not Alt, which is the Düsseldorf beer.

CHRISTMAS Can we go up in the Rhine cable car at Christmas?

Only on the four Advent weekends: 28-29 Nov, 5-6, 12-13 and 19-20 Dec 2026, 10:00 to 18:00, last boarding 17:45. Normal daily running ends in early November. In 2026 a single is 5.50 euros for adults and 3.30 for children aged 4 to 12, and a return is 9.50

Can we visit Cologne Cathedral, and does it cost?

Since 1 July 2026 tourist visits inside the cathedral need a ticket: 12 euros (6 reduced). Children up to 13 are free. Sightseeing is Mon to Sat 10:00 to 17:45 (last entry 17:30) and Sundays and church holidays usually 13:30 to 16:30. Coming in and 4.80. Older creator prices of 5 and 9 euros are out of date. Checked 2026-09 ↗

to pray or light a candle is free via the north door by the station. Checked 2026-09 ↗

Can we climb the cathedral tower?

Yes, if the kids can manage 533 steps with no lift. It is 8 euros (4 reduced) and free for children up to 13. Hours Nov to Feb are 9:00 to 16:00, last entry 30 minutes before. It is closed 11 Nov, 24, 25 and 31 Dec and 1 Jan. There are no lockers or pushchair storage. KölnCard gives no discount.

CHRISTMAS Which markets are open over Christmas itself?

The cathedral, Markt der Engel and Nikolausdorf close on 23 December, and Heinzels Alter Markt too. Heinzels Heumarkt (with the ice rink) runs to 10 January 2027 but rests on 24 and 25 December. The harbour market runs to 3 January 2027, but we found no hours for 24 to 25 December.

What are the passport and entry rules for UK visitors?

Gov.uk says your passport must be under 10 years old on arrival and valid for at least 3 months after you leave the Schengen area. You can visit visa-free for up to 90 days in any 180. The EU Entry/Exit System is being rolled out, so you may need to give fingerprints and a photo on your first entry (children 11 and under give a photo only). Allow extra time at borders.
